A downloadable Polaris snowmobile repair manual is a digitally delivered book of instructions that details the process of fixing or mending a motor vehicle with caterpillar tracks on the rear and steerable skis on the front. The body design of the DeLorean was a product of Giorgetto Giugiaro of Ital Design and is panelled in brushed SS304 stainless steel. Except for three cars plated in 24-karat gold, all DeLoreans left the factory uncovered by paint or clearcoat. Painted DeLoreans do exist, although these were all painted after the cars were purchased from the factory.
