Trial Organization. One of the most important goals a trial attorney should have been the presentation of his or her case in a clear and orderly manner so that it may be easily understood by the jury. Double jeopardy is a procedural defence that prevents an accused person from being tried again on the same (or similar) charges and on the same facts, following a valid acquittal or conviction. As described by the U.S. Supreme Court in its unanimous decision concerning Ball v. United States 163 U.S. 662 (1896), one of its earliest cases dealing with double jeopardy, "the prohibition is not ...
