

Download Alabama Moon Study Guide

Get the latest Gulf Coast Beaches news, entertainment and weather. Find travel resources, photos and videos at al.com. Governor Ivey announces $33 million for restoration and conservation projects in Alabama Governor Kay Ivey announced the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation (NFWF) has approved more than $33.5 million for five new projects and amendments to two existing projects which focus on the restoration and conservation of Alabama's natural resources. Want to learn more about your gifted child? The Alabama Association for Gifted Children have a conference right there in Birmingham, Alabama where you can learn and connect with other parents of gifted kids. The U.S. economy has grown far more rapidly under Democratic presidents than under Republican presidents since World War II -- but why? A paper released Tuesday by the National Bureau of Economic ...