

Download Avoiding Or Minimizing Construction Litigation

This session will cover five important construction planning and management tasks that are often overlooked or not thoroughly applied that increase likelihood of increased costs and delays, and also the probability of construction litigation. McGuiness and Associates Attorneys At Law Law Practices, General Litigation, Construction Law, Litigation, Claims Advice, Development & Preparation, Contracts - Transaction Practice, Labor and Employment Law, Litigation, Labor Law Services, Business, Banking & Commercial Litigation, Security Company Services California Construction Management specializes in the highest level of service and technical expertise in any construction setting, using experience and a common sense approach that delivers results and builds long-term relationships. Christy Comstock is a partner at Wales Comstock who focuses her practice on trucking and transportation, commercial litigation and criminal defense matters.