Green. The green light at the end of Daisy's dock is the symbol of Gatsby's hopes and dreams. It represents everything that haunts and beckons Gatsby: the physical and emotional distance between him and Daisy, the gap between the past and the present, the promises of the future, and the powerful lure of that other green stuff he craves—money.

The Great Gatsby Summary. This classic novel, set during the "Jazz Age" (the 1920s) in a young postwar America, is the coming-of-age story of an idealistic young financier who, over the course of a memorable summer, learns uncomfortable truths about the relationships between truth and illusion, between past and present.

The Color White: Tainted? The color white is oftentimes unanimously associated with purity, hope, and innocence. However, in The Great Gatsby, by F. Scott Fitzgerald, the color has the deeper meaning of false purity over goodness.
