Sam. Michigan. Sam was a wonderful therapy dog and partner for 8 years, passing from Lymphoma on November 24, 2014. He was truly my heart dog and gave his heart and unconditional love to all he meet while visiting patients at hospitals, nursing facilities, hospices and schools for the reading program.Sounds crazy doesn't it? When we think of dogs we think of getting lost in their luxurious fur. Just petting them lowers our blood pressure and can take stress right out of our lives. Thankfully most dogs like being petted, but not all dogs do. Even dogs that were taken home as pups and loved [...]Discover good dogs for seniors and retirees who crave canine friendship. Learn about the factors you should consider when choosing a dog. Read about more than a dozen different breeds that are well-suited for older adults. And learn about the differences between therapy, support, and service dogs!The Miki Dog is relatively a new breed of toy dogs that have been developed only in the 1980s, using different breeds. These little-size dogs mostly have an apple-domed head, with large dark eyes and nose, and a characteristic stop. The mini Miki dog has erect feather ears (though sometimes cropped) that are quite movable.
