

Download How To Protect Yourself From Your Computer

Every tax professional in the United States -- whether a member of a major accounting firm or an owner of a one-person storefront -- is a potential target for highly sophisticated, well-funded and technologically adept cybercriminals around the world. Their objective: to steal your clients' data ...When your computer gets infected with a virus it can be a devastating experience and this is exactly why you need to protect your computer from viruses. A virus can consume your precious computer files and even damage your computer hardware. How to Protect Your Eyes when Using a Computer. Most jobs nowadays involve some degree of computer usage, meaning almost everyone will be spending time in front of a computer. Unfortunately, this can result in eye strain or injury. In...There are some practical solutions to safeguard some of your data, like installing software to block web tracking technologies.