

Download International Monetary Law Issues For The New Millennium

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) is an international organization headquartered in Washington, D.C., consisting of "189 countries working to foster global monetary cooperation, secure financial stability, facilitate international trade, promote high employment and sustainable economic growth, and reduce poverty around the world." Formed in 1944 at the Bretton Woods Conference primarily by ...The World Bank is an international financial institution with a mandate of poverty alleviation and provides leveraged loans to developing countries for capital programs. The Trilateral Commission was founded in 1973 by David Rockefeller, Zbigniew Brzezinski, and others in order to foster cooperation between the U.S., Europe, and Japan in shaping governmental and non-governmental action to renovate the international system shaped after World War II. International development or global development is a broad concept denoting the idea that societies and countries have differing levels of 'development' on an international scale. It is the basis for international classifications such as developed country, developing country and least developed country, and for a field of practice and research that in various ways engages with international ...