

Download Management Topics In Surgery Non Technical Skills For Surgical Trainees

Surgical trainees and experienced surgeons undertook a simulated scenario designed to challenge their non-technical skills. Scenarios were video recorded and participants were assessed using the Non-Technical Skills for Surgeons (NOTSS) scoring system. Download as PDF tab of Management Topics In Surgery Non Technical Skills For Surgical Trainees To search for words within a Management Topics In Surgery Non Technical Skills For Surgical Trainees PDF file you can use the Search Management Topics In Surgery Non Technical Skills For Surgical Trainees PDF window or a Find toolbar. This study sought to compare the non-technical skills of experienced surgeons who completed their training before the introduction of SET with the non-technical skills of more recent trainees. Methods. Surgical trainees and experienced surgeons undertook a simulated scenario designed to challenge their non-technical skills. Non-Technical Skills for Surgeons (NOTSS) This is a one-day course for consultant surgeons and post-CCT trainees from all surgical specialties. The course examines the non-technical skills which underpin good operative performance using short talks, video simulated scenarios, an audience response voting system, and small group discussions.