

Download Miserable Memories Of A Meddling Mother In Law

When I met my future mother in law 38 years ago, she came across as being a very sweet and loving person. After marriage, I moved to my husband's small town where everyone knows everybody, and couldn't for the life of me, understand why all of these strangers HATED me seemingly with a passion. When we were engaged, my now-husband's parents asked us if we would be interested in buying their house (the house that my husband grew up in) because they were moving to Florida. After a lot of discussion and hesitation (mostly on my end because I had a bad feeling that my MIL, whom I don't
