

Download The Emory University Comprehensive Board Review In Internal Medicine

44th Annual Comprehensive Board Review in Internal Medicine July 20-24, 2019 JW Marriott Buckhead Atlanta, Georgia Course Information Taken together, The Emory University Comprehensive Board Review in Internal Medicine is a succinct, up-to-date, and superbly organized summary of internal medicine--one that will also serve as an incomparable clinical reference for years to come. The 44th Annual Comprehensive Board Review and Update in Internal Medicine is a comprehensive review of Internal Medicine. It specifically targets those physicians that are either completing their first American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) certification or preparing for their re-certification exam. Presented by the Department of Medicine at Emory University School of Medicine, the 42nd Annual Comprehensive Board Review in Internal Medicine is a comprehensive review of Internal Medicine. It specifically targets those physicians that are either completing their first American Board of Internal Medicine...